

I like the way Indiana has set up presently for no call. Keep things the way they are. If we want to contact business, we can do the contacting, not them.